

Cursive Writing Practice

The page contains ten horizontal writing lines, each designed for cursive practice. Each line is composed of four horizontal boundaries: a solid blue line at the top, a dashed blue line just below it, a solid red line at the bottom, and another dashed blue line just above the red line. This structure provides a guide for letter height and placement in cursive script.